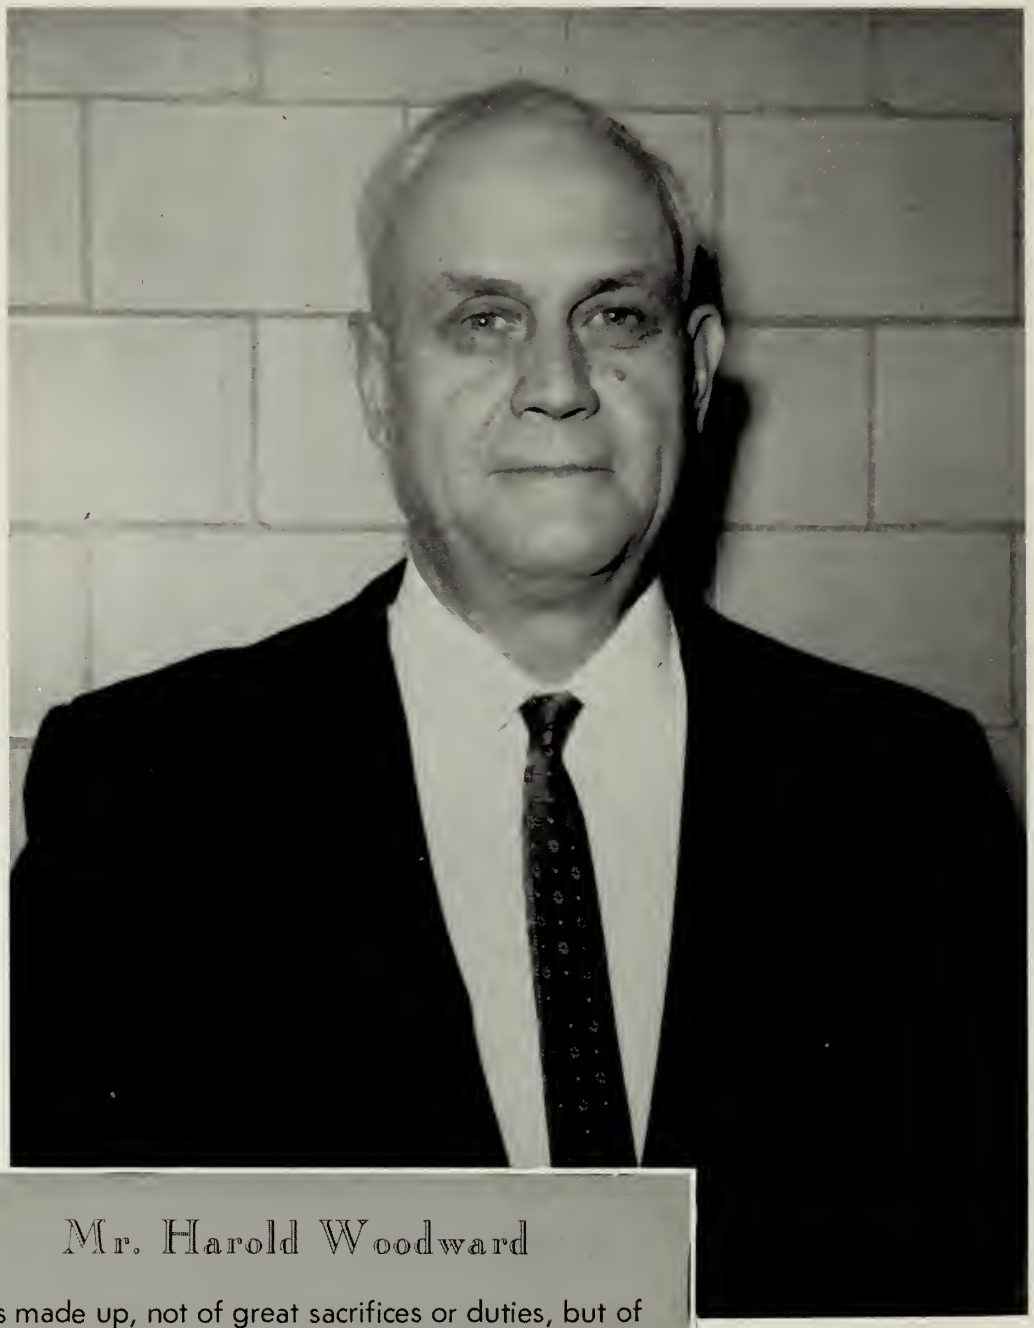
Foreword

During the past years, hundreds of students have passed through the halls of Norton High School and have striven to achieve the goals which have been set for them. Having achieved their goals, their sojourn ends, and they leave the school to begin a new life for which they have been prepared.

As we approach graduation, we pause to reflect upon our sojourn in Norton High School. Memories of important and fun-filled events enter our minds, and we realize that we are neither the first nor the last group of Seniors to end its sojourn in this school. Scenes from past years become vivid, and we are made more aware of the passing of time. Time will continue to pass, and there will always be another Senior class to look back—to reflect upon its sojourn in Norton High School—and to look forward—to anticipate the future which lies ahead, yet, still out of sight.

We Dedicate This Sojourn to . . .



Mr. Harold Woodward

"Life is made up, not of great sacrifices or duties, but of little things, in which smiles and kindnesses, and small obligations given habitually, are what win and preserve the heart and secure comfort."

Sir Humphry Davy

We, the Senior Class, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Harold Woodward whom we have known for many years as a man on whom we could depend and a man who has merited our deepest respect.

In the Memory of Mr. Homer Paulus

We knew him as a fine man and a dedicated teacher. His objective was to educate every student in his classes. He utilized his valuable time to read a great deal of additional material which would be useful to his students. Countless hours were spent directing the Dramatic Club and Senior Class plays. He spent many nights alone, working on scenery, or rewriting a scene which he thought needed improvement. Often, the money for extra make-up and props came from his own pocket.

Mr. Paulus passed away on October 16th, 1964, but he will always be remembered for his dedicated service and warm generosity. The class of 1965 wishes to honor Mr. Homer Paulus for his fine work as a teacher and for his superb efforts as a drama coach.

Our Superintendent

Mr. George A. MacArthur, who has been our superintendent for three years, attends almost all sports functions, Dramatic Club productions, and school dances. Mr. MacArthur is also associated with young people outside of school. He serves on the executive committee for Boy Scouts and during the summer he coaches a Little League Baseball team.

Our Principal

Mr. Henri A. Yelle has been the principal of our high school for the past seven years. Under his guidance and supervision, the students of Norton High School have been provided with an excellent academic and extracurricular program. For sixteen years, Mr. Yelle has been associated with students outside of school in his post as the public librarian. During the past year, Mr. Yelle has met with many of the seniors to help them plan for their futures.

Our Assistant Principal

Mr. James E. Blount has been the Assistant-Principal of the high school for over a year. Previously, he was our guidance counselor. Mr. Blount presently is active as an advisor to the Junior National Honor Society and to the Senior Student Council, and he is an avid sports fan. During the past two years, Mr. Blount has helped to increase school spirit and to increase the attendance at school functions.

The Latin Club, under the supervision of Mr. T. Galvin and Mr. G. Brousseau, meets once a month. The club members view slides, plan for the Freshman Initiation, present short plays and discuss various aspects of Ancient Rome. Membership in the Latin Club is entitled to all those students who have taken Latin. In the fall, Freshmen who want to be members of the club are sold to upperclassmen at a slave sale where they are required to sing a Latin song or to perform a skit. After the slave sale, the students undergo an initiation conducted by the Sophomore Latin Class. In February, the club members went to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. In the spring, the club conducted a mock funeral and a mock wedding.

The 1964 football team has dedicated this season to the Norton High School Boosters and all those who have helped to introduce football to Norton.

Although the season was abbreviated, our boys gave a fine account of themselves in their games against Medfield, Mansfield, and Lincoln. Many will never forget the events leading up to the first game and the games themselves.

In the first encounter with Medfield, our Lancers threatened many times, but were not able to score. John Hayes and Doug Kerr lugged the "pigskin" most of the afternoon and at times showed signs of becoming fine backs. The Lancers played an impressive defensive game as the Medfield eleven was unable to get but three first downs throughout the afternoon. Jackie O'Brien and Fred George turned in notable performances defensively. The most outstanding of all Norton players during the game was Francis Kullas who is an offensive center and defensive inside linebacker.

Mansfield's undefeated team was our next opponent. Run, pass, and punt was the pattern of play in the first quarter. In the second quarter John Hayes broke off tackle and raced 32 yards for Norton's first touchdown. Excitement raced through the stands and on the field as the boys ran back up the field forgetting to try for the extra point. Finally, the team was organized and Doug Kerr scored the extra point. Mansfield fought back and scored three times before the half and led 20-8 at half-time. The third period brought about another Mansfield touchdown, but Norton would not let down. They scored again, when John Hayes ran 80 yards to the Mansfield 2 yard line on the ensuing kickoff. Doug Kerr carried the ball over from there.

The final game of the year revealed two more possible future stars, Russell Hardigan and Roy Holway. Holway scored Norton's only touchdown against Lincoln. Lincoln scored three times to win the hard fought contest 20-6.

The all out effort of the cheerleaders, the band, the Pep Club and the student body made Norton's first football season a success. This combination spells trouble for next years opponents.

"You've got to push until it hurts", says Coach Bartek.

Plenty of exercise drills are necessary for good conditioning.

More exercises to keep the boys in shape.

Coach Bartek demonstrates how to take the hike from center and to hand the ball off to the halfback.

The boys go through a fundamental drill of running, blocking, and tackling.

Varsity Basketball

The squad was called out on November sixteenth. Forty-eight candidates began arduous training and conditioning. By November twenty-fifth the squad was divided and thirty-three boys were selected to continue, thirteen on the varsity and twenty on the J.V. team. For the first time in many years the varsity was composed of Juniors and Seniors only. The coaches felt that the better Freshman and Sophomore players would benefit more from a full season of J.V. ball than from sitting on the varsity bench.

The veterans, Seniors, Paul Rich, Bob Angus, and Cliff Reynolds, and Juniors John Young, Lee Raymond, Dave Brown, Dave Burbank, and Steve Prosky were to form the nucleus of the squad. Richie Trubucco, Les Conners, Mike Bartley, and Pat Cassidy were up from the J.V. team and Gil Hawkins, a transfer from Maine rounded out the thirteen man squad.

On December fourth the team defeated Lincoln R.I. 88-65, then came a big game with the tough Dighton-Rehoboth Falcons whom the Lancers had defeated last year in a double over-time. The Lancers came from behind in the closing minutes to gain a 59-55 decision. On December fifteenth the Lancers played Hopedale in the Tri-County League opener. This was another cliff-hanger as Bob Angus hit a jump shot with two seconds to go, to give us a 64-63 lead and the win. Next, we had an easy one at Blackstone. Then, Norfolk fell, as Cliff scored 33. Next, came our Christmas vacation. During the vacation the team got two victories playing without Cliff who had severely sprained his ankle. At Mansfield, Bobby Angus had his best day as he scored 20 and dominated the boards. Lee, Steve, Zeb, and Dave Brown started. We won a close one at Lincoln coming from behind again in the last period. After vacation it was back to the Tri-County League. In quick succession Nipmuc and Bellingham fell. Holliston was to be the next opponent and perhaps the toughest one to face the Lancers to date. Cliff, Bobby, and the Pollack were terrific and the team put on the finest display of basketball in many years, Norton 87, Holliston 64. Medfield and Hopkinton also succumbed and the Lancers were now 12-0 for the season.

On Friday, January twenty-second a sellout crowd jammed the gym to see the clash of the League's only undefeated teams. Mills had swept past eight straight opponents and this game could decide the league championship. Cliff had the finest night of his career as he, Bobby, Steve, and Dave Brown led the team to an overwhelming 86-69 win. Medway, Dover, and Norfolk fell in easy fashion. The record now read 17-0, three more to go. At Bellingham in a pressure-packed game that see-sawed back and forth, the Pollack led a fourth quarter change that snatched victory from defeat in the final minute of play. Next came Nipmuc. After playing a good first half and leading 37-28 the team cooled off in the third period and Nipmuc went ahead 51-48. Cliff and Bobby pulled the team together and once again a fourth period rally brought a hard earned victory 68-65. Blackstone was the next opponent and after a tough game, the Lancers won the league championship by virtue of their 76-65 triumph. Nineteen down and one to go.

To close out the regular season the Lancers traveled to Hopedale in quest of the school's first undefeated season since 1960. After a tough, tense struggle which saw the lead change many times, the Blue Raiders of Hopedale came out victorious 51-49. It was a long bus ride home for the defeated players.

As the bus came down Rte 140 sadness turned to curiosity, then to amazement, and finally to incredulity as the players got their first glimpse of the caravan of well-wishers that was forming to escort them home. All along Mansfield Avenue, people were out on the sidewalk and porches to applaud, cheer, and express their appreciation to the team. By the time the boys reached the center, West Main Street was lined with well-wishers and supporters. The reception in the school parking lot was something that none of the players will ever forget. The town of Norton outdid itself on that evening of February sixteenth. The enthusiasm and the spirit displayed was probably greater than it would have been if the team had won. This was a fine tribute to a great team.

The Annual All-Star Game and Cheerleading tournament was a star-spangled night for the Lancers. Cliff, Bobby, and Steve were named to the All-League team, and the school was awarded the League Championship trophy.

The Morton High School Cheerleaders were awarded the Tri-County League Cheerleading Trophy.

Coach Al Nuttall did another fine job this year with the junior varsity basketball team. Although the team had little height, they made up for this lack with speed and hustle. Consequently, the jayvees defeated many of the taller teams and finished the campaign with a record of 12 victories and 8 defeats. Freshman, Rit Bouchard, was the team's leading scorer, and he received able support from teammates Ronnie Goddard, Bob Thurber, Bruce Melanson, Dave Burbank, Chip Hardigan, Spike Kullas, and Richie Trabucco.

Baseball

Coach Bob Ford's Lancers were the 1964 champions of the Tri-County League, and are looking for a second straight league title. The Lancers should feature a hard-hitting attack led by three-year veteran catcher, Bob Angus; first-baseman, Cliff Reynolds; and shortstop, Steve Prosky, with plenty of additional help from Dave Burbank, Bob Lovenbury, Lee Raymond, and Cliff Bowen. Pitching appears to be the team's major problem with Richie Trabucco being the only starting pitcher returning from last year's squad. If Coach Ford can find some pitching, to aid Trabucco, to go along with the hitting and a good defense, then the Lancers will have another very successful season.

First year coach, Mr. William Roland, has been in our school system only since September, so he has never seen any of the boys perform on the track field, and it is, therefore, difficult to predict the outcome of this year's squad. Basing an assumption on appearances only, it seems that the team may do quite well in the sprints with John Young, John Hayes, Ron Murray, and Don, Gus, and Ron Fernandes leading the way, and should also do well in the shot-put and discus events with Phil Boucher, Larry Stevens, Bruce Melanson, Joe Bohannon, and Dan Gross being the leaders.

Because the school does not have a cinder track, all track meets must be scheduled at other schools.

Above: This year's success in the sprinting events will depend greatly on the speed of Juniors, John Young and Adrian Dunlop, and Sophomore, John Hayes.

Above: Dan Gross, Phil Boucher, and Bruce Melanson are Norton's leaders in the shot-put and discus events.

Cross Country

Above: John Young, this year's Cross Country Team Captain, will be returning as Captain again next year.

This year's Cross Country Team did not fare as well as it possibly could have due to injuries to key runners. Norton's record under first year coach Mr. William Rowland was three wins and four losses.

The prospects of next year's team appear promising. A strong nucleus will be formed by this year's four best runners, Juniors John Young, Bruce Melanson, and Adrian Dunlop, and Sophomore Don Fernandes, who will all be returning to next year's squad.

Coach Roland has been making plans for the next several seasons as well as next year. Last fall he began training seventh and eighth graders for future varsity competition.

Junior-Senior Prom

The Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Junior class, was held on June 6, 1964. The theme depicted an "Oriental Holiday" and the cafeteria was decocated appropriately by the Prom Committee. The Grand March and the selection of the Queen were the highlights of the evening. The music was provided by "The Serenaders," and a wonderful evening was enjoyed by all who attended.

Welcoming

The Student Council and the Senior Class sponsored the annual Welcoming Dance which was held in the Norton High School Auditorium on September 23, 1964. This annual event was a general reunion for the upperclassmen and it gave the new Freshmen a chance to "get acquainted."

The decorations in the Auditorium were simple, consisting of paper with ivy painted on it and fall leaves, which decorated the walls and base of the stage. Music for the evening was supplied by a four piece band from the Navy.

A warm and friendly atmosphere prevailed throughout the evening as people reunited with old friends and made new ones.

Life Begins

Last April, under the direction of the English Department, a program was held in honor of William Shakespeare's 400th birthday. The title of this event was appropriately named "Life Begins at 400."

Backdrop for the stage was a portion of the Globe Theatre, recreated by high school students. The program began with an informal talk by Dr. P. Albert Duhamel of Boston College. Following Dr. Duhamel's speech, the audience enjoyed several scenes from Shakespeare's plays: A Midsummer Night's Dream, The Taming of the Shrew, and Henry V. Between these excerpts, well-known soliloquies from Macbeth, The Merchant of Venice, Hamlet and Julius Caesar were given by the students.

During the program, several members of the Music Department sang Madrigals and played Baroque music selections. The show ended with Mr. Henri A. Yelle, principal, awarding volumes of Shakespeare's works for: the best actor, the best scene, and the best presentation of a soliloquy.

Senior Class Play

Christine Clark, Judy Berube, and Jeanine White put the last coat of paint on the scenery before dress rehearsal.

On Friday, November 13th, the Norton High School Senior Class presented THE TAVERN by George M. Cohan. Friday the thirteenth, contrary to custom, proved to be a lucky day for the Seniors; the play was a great success. The Seniors appeared to enjoy the play as much as the audience. The Seniors rushed about learning lines, putting finishing touches on scenery, dabbling in make-up; creating costumes, and collecting props.

Mr. Klin meets with the cast after dress rehearsal to offer tips to help improve their performance.

. . . The Tavern

John Trainor as Ezra, Philip Boucher as the Sheriff, and Paul Rich as Tony, enter the Tavern and arrest all its occupants.

The Tavern keeper, Michael Bartley, orders the Vagabond, James Moore, to raise his hands while Zach, Patrick Cassidy, looks on.

Christmas

Above are Miss Grace B. Kiernan and Jeannie White who collected tickets at the entrance to the dance.

The Senior Class sponsored the semi-formal Christmas Dance this year. It was held on December 18, 1964 in the Norton High School Auditorium.

The back of the Auditorium was decorated with a Christmas tree, which had presents and an electric train arranged underneath.

Above: Sara Paulding and Bobby Gallant begin to dance, while the others seem to have already finished.

Dance

The front of the Auditorium was ornamented by a sleigh containing a model of Santa surrounded by presents.

Music was provided by "Junior and The Mondos" a four member group hired for the evening. A teacher portraying Santa Claus roamed about, spreading holiday wishes.

The Christmas

The Christmas program, an annual event at Norton High School, was held on Thursday, December seventeenth. This year the Dramatic Club joined with the Band and the Glee Club to present the program.

Right: Mr. Frank Montesanti rehearses with the Band.

Program

The evening began with the presentation of "Noel Suite", "Three Chorales for Band," "The Christmas Suite," "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "The Sleep of the Child Jesus," Ring, Christmas Bells," "What Child Is This," "Willie, Play Your Little Drum," and "The Twelve Days of Christman" by the Norton High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Frank Montesanti. The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mr. Peter Klin, then presented the play Mariot and Mariette, a play fashioned after the short story, "The Gift of the Magi," by O'Henry. To end the program, the Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. William Adams, sang "The Child and the Lamb," "Noel the Christ is Born," "There was no Room for the Christ Child," and "Sleigh Ride."

The Latin Club . . .

Rbove, Ronnie Goddard rolls a pencil down the hall while Cynthia Cooper, another slave, and Diane MacArthur, his master, supervise.

Every year, Freshman Latin Students, who wish to become members of the Latin Club, are sold at a Slave Sale. All high school students are invited to bid for a "slave-for-a-day." Before the slaves are auctioned, they must perform a skit or sing a song to prove their value. The day following the sale, the slaves wear their tunics and serve their master for the entire school day. The master assigns the slave numerous tasks. This year, some favorite tasks were: rolling a pencil with one's nose, carrying piles of books while remaining three feet behind and one head shorter than the master, proposing to teachers, and singing happy birthday at the top of one's voice in the lunchroom. The sale proved to be both profitable and hilarious.

Above, Michael Wynn stands victoriously over Paul Hassie whom he has defeated in a re-enactment of gladiatorial combat.

Student Government Elections

Each year, the Student Council conducts Student Government elections. Two parties are formed and candidates are chosen by each party. This year, the two parties were the Hags and the Hogans. Primary elections were held within the parties and the victorious candidates ran as the candidates in the final election. These officers act as representatives of the students and they serve in various areas as heads of the Student Council.

Lancer Bowl

The Lancer Bowl is an annual program in which a team of two Seniors and two Freshmen competes against a team of two Juniors and two Sophomores in answering questions presented by a panel of teachers from the separate departments. The questions are chosen from the subject material taught by the individual teachers. The contestants are chosen by a faculty board, and the winning team members receive individual trophies with their names inscribed on a plaque. This year's winners were the Seniors and the Freshmen.

Above: The Gold and the Purple teams appear before the student body and prepare to begin the competition.

Above: The Gold team anxiously awaits the question which is to be given by Miss G. B. Kiernan of the English Department.

Above: Mr. C. Reade of the Sicence Department presents the question to the Gold team by which they defeated their opponents. In the background, the Purple team prepares for the next question.

On various occasions, the students of Norton High School gather in the auditorium for various special events. These events are an important part of high school life. As we reach the end of our 1965 sojourn in Norton High School, we recall the many pleasant events of the year, and we look forward to what the future holds for each one. The future comes quickly, but why hurry? Roads lead in all directions, but let us choose wisely and let our roads lead forward.
